Nice Job
Billing Office
Many thanks to the staff at the SJMH Billing Office for the “helping hand” to one of their co-workers, Sheila Showalter. The group held a bake sale several weeks ago; a hot dog sale yesterday, and the raffle for a really nice vacation basket. Jim Paugh was the winner of the raffle. Pat On the Back to Debbie Tomaro

As a healthcare team member, Debbie is undeniable an asset. She is a spirit lifter, an absolute joy to be around. She is kind, empathetic, engaging, composed, and always smiling. Although she is not my office staff directly, she assists when needed. I am thankful to share a office space with her.
Two Stonewall Jackson Memorial Hospital staff members - Population Health Nurse Sarah Rolenson, BSN, RN, and Dietitian Pearl Saucier - recently received their certifications as Peer Educators through the Diabetic Empowerment Education Program, part of the University of Illinois at Chicago, Midwest Latino Health Research, Training and Policy Center. They attended classes in Charleston at Quality Insights. It was a three-day certification for a three year accreditation certificate.

The training was very valuable according to Rolenson, and the duo learned how to simplify the processes of diabetes into six classes which will help the community to better manage his/her care and empower the patient for their own healthcare efforts.
