Vein Specialist Now At SJMH in Weston

Stonewall Jackson Memorial Hospital announces the addition of Dr. Carol White to the Hospital staff. Dr. White is the physician for the SJMH Vein Center located on the first floor of the medical facility in Weston.

Dr. White is board-certified in emergency medicine and has six years of experience in phlebology and vascular medicine. This specialty provides Dr. White with the knowledge to diagnose, treat and where possible, prevent any form of venous disease, whether it be varicose veins, clotting disorders, vascular birthmarks or leg ulcers.

“I have over 2,500 cases in my vascular experience,” explained Dr. White. “I will be available at Stonewall Jackson Memorial on Mondays, but will also be opening Dr. White’s Vein Center in Morgantown soon.”

She is a Morgantown native and her parents, Mary G. White and the late Darrell Lynn White were also from there. She has two siblings. Her twin sister Cheryl, is a nurse at Mon Health, as is her brother Rick. Dr. White attained a nursing degree from Fairmont State College before pursuing her medical training at West Virginia University. Her residency was at J.W. Ruby Memorial Hospital in Morgantown.

She has a fiancée, Rob Voorhees, and lives with her canine companions at Carmichael, PA. Her two standard poodles are named Rikki Bobbi and Bessy. Her doberman pinscher is Stella. She lives an active life-style and enjoys scuba diving, snorkeling, hiking, white water rafting, horseback riding, and kayaking.

Reminder...

Our fundraiser for Lydia Selmon will be held on Monday, November 20. There will be a bake sale beginning at 8 a.m. and a hot dog sale from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. on the ground floor.

NEW THIS YEAR! Shenel Pig Drop

While the festivities in the fire department are going on, Shenel will have people register to win a ham - nearing the end of the event, we will pick out 15 winning entries – and you them to tiny started pigs. Then our maintenance tech will take them up in the Shenel bucket and drop them to a target on the ground – the 5 pigs closest to the bullseye win a ham! (They will walk away that night with the ham in hand)
